

BOB'S POETRY QUIZ.

- 1..Who went to sea in a beautiful pea-green boat? _____
- 2..Who had a cold coming of it? _____
- 3..Which old chap stopped one of three? _____
- 4..Who hoped that he would be buried in some corner of a foreign field? _____
- 5..At which railway station was the poet one afternoon in late June? _____
- 6..What animal had a fearful symmetry? _____
- 7..On which beach is the sea calm tonight? _____
- 8..Who heard the gunshot fired by the landlord's daughter? _____
- 9..What was singing in a melodious plot of beechen green? _____
- 10.Where will a cabin be built of clay and wattles? _____
- 11.How many were seen tossing their heads in sprightly dance? _____
- 12.Who left the web and left the loom and made three paces through the room? _____
- 13.Which cat was the servant of the Living God? _____
- 14.Who had no trunk and was standing in the desert? _____
- 15.Who was hailed as a blithe spirit? _____
- 16.How old was the girl asked for a kiss, because youth's a stuff will not endure? _____
- 17.Who sleeps as sound as his namesake under ground? _____
- 18.What, according to the poet, is a dangerous thing? _____
- 19.Which bird quoth: "Never more". _____
- 20.Who dumped the knight alone on the cold hill's side? _____
- 21.Which is the loveliest of trees now? _____
- 22.Who should gather their rosebuds while they may? _____
- 23.Who was still on deck when all but he had fled? _____
- 24.Who is homeward plodding his weary way? _____
- 25.What, according to the poet, should we have time to do? _____
- 26.Who decreed a pleasure dome? _____
- 27.What came whiffing and burbling through the tulgey wood? _____
- 28.Who of all the smart girls is the darling of my heart? _____
- 29.Where does he want to be now it's April? _____
- 30.Where is it still ten to three? _____