Death on the Amazon is a film about the last voyage of local hero and round-the-world yachting legend - Sir Peter Blake. It's a compelling record of his last voyage into the heart of the Amazon. The story of a remarkable journey in the 120ft schooner, Seamaster - 1800 miles up the Amazon and Negro rivers.

This moving film will be introduced by its Producer, Sarah Cunliffe of Big Wave Productions

Also presenting, Around Cape Horn, a fascinating vintage film made in 1929 by Captain Irving Johnson. In this film he narrates the passage of the merchant ship and massive barque Peking, as she rounds Cape Horn during a tremendous storm. The style of his narration made Johnson a favourite of the lecture circuit
